Mission:
The White River Partnership is comprised of public, private, and non-profit entities committed to restoring and maintaining healthy riparian areas along the White River in northwest Colorado and northeast Utah.

Vision:
The White River is a dynamic riverine ecosystem and is functioning to provide necessary and sufficient habitat to ensure persistence of native aquatic and riparian species as well as the ecosystem services utilized by human communities.